

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5, 1882.

Mr. Speaker Koller was notified this morning that he would have opposition on his own...

The New York Herald says: "All the President has done for deserves to have the public approval..."

The reorganizers having degraded the judiciary of the State, may now, as indicated by communications...

Except to slappers and snow ballers, snow, as a general thing, is not appreciated, but as more than a third of the winter months had elapsed...

The democratic Maryland has some differences, but sensible, and unlike those in this State...

The Baltimore Times says: "In politics Mr. Cameron is a democrat of the old school..."

It will not be long before the troops of poor, simple-minded and easily deceived negroes who are now leaving their old homes in South Carolina...

With Mr. Sneed to lead the Mahomedans in Georgia and Mr. John R. Rice to lead them in Louisiana...

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Norfolk and Petersburg cotton imports are now as high as 3,000 bales per day.

Forest fires are burning in the mountains in the east; and southwest of Lynchburg, and are doing considerable damage to timber.

It is stated that within the last month or six weeks many farmers from North Carolina have purchased lands in Sussex as a new soil for this year's crops.

It is stated that arrangements are about effected to start a newspaper at Lynchburg, February 1, to be published daily.

A convention of delegates of Virginia was held at Petersburg yesterday, for the purpose of organizing a state pharmaceutical association.

The Westmoreland Scoundrel. (Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

A despatch announces the death of Hon. C. C. Clay at his country residence, near Huntsville, Ala., on Tuesday.

A Pittsburg glass manufacturer proposes to erect buildings of glass, manufacturing the materials of a common brick.

Rev. Geo. C. Soren, late assistant minister of St. James' church, Richmond, has accepted a call to Trinity church, Oronoco, Ky.

Legislative.

As announced in yesterday's Gazette, the Legislature reconvened yesterday.

Mr. Riddleberger presented the following joint resolutions, which, under a suspension of the rules, were adopted:

Resolved (The House of Delegates concurring,) That the Senators from Virginia be instructed and her Representatives in Congress requested by this General Assembly to give their earnest support to the bill introduced in the Senate of the United States by Hon. Henry W. Blair...

Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governors of other States, asking their cooperation by presenting this important subject of Federal legislation to the attention of their several General Assemblies.

Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governors of other States, asking their cooperation by presenting this important subject of Federal legislation to the attention of their several General Assemblies.

Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governors of other States, asking their cooperation by presenting this important subject of Federal legislation to the attention of their several General Assemblies.

Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governors of other States, asking their cooperation by presenting this important subject of Federal legislation to the attention of their several General Assemblies.

Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governors of other States, asking their cooperation by presenting this important subject of Federal legislation to the attention of their several General Assemblies.

Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governors of other States, asking their cooperation by presenting this important subject of Federal legislation to the attention of their several General Assemblies.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Joseph Charnot, of Bordeaux, France, has failed for 15,000,000 francs.

The Russian government is considering the expediency of imposing an export duty on grain.

Nearly one-half of the actors and actresses of New York have been vaccinated at police headquarters.

Rev. V. R. Holshuis, a prominent Baptist clergyman of Buffalo, N. Y., died yesterday.

Geo. S. J. Burbridge, who has been talked of as a party to a prospective duel with Congressman Blackburn, of Kentucky, is preparing for publication a statement explaining the origin of the feud.

The Philadelphia Board of Revision of Texas decided yesterday that passages and obituary property not forming an integral part of a church are subject to taxation and will be assessed.

At a meeting of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, held last night at Delancey's, New York, Alfred was elected speaker.

At a meeting of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, held last night at Delancey's, New York, Alfred was elected speaker.

At a meeting of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, held last night at Delancey's, New York, Alfred was elected speaker.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPH NEWS.

To Day's Congressional Proceedings.

SENATE.

The Senate was called to order by the President pro tem, Mr. Davis.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

By Mr. May, of Texas, to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service of the Army.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

By Mr. May, of Texas, to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service of the Army.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

By Mr. May, of Texas, to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service of the Army.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

HOUSE.

When the House met at noon to-day Mr. O'Connell, of Ind., rose to a question of privilege.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

By Mr. May, of Texas, to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service of the Army.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

By Mr. May, of Texas, to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service of the Army.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

By Mr. May, of Texas, to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service of the Army.

By Mr. Jones, of Florida, to regulate the appointment of sailmakers in the U. S. Navy.

By Mr. May, of Texas, to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service of the Army.

A Remarkable Statement.

The following article from the Democrat and Chronicle of Rochester, N. Y., is of so striking a nature...

On the first day of June 1831, I lay at my residence in this city surrounded by my friends and waiting for death.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

THE GUTTAU TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5.—Mr. Scoville and Col. Reed were in conference at an early hour this morning, and will be engaged all day upon the preparation of law points, which they will on Saturday present to the court for its rulings.

Neither of these gentlemen appear at all sanguine of obtaining a verdict favorable to their client, yet both of them seem to maintain, not only that Guttau was legally irresponsible for his act, but that he is at this moment an insane man, his own assertion to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. Scoville was greatly disappointed at his failure to get before the jury yesterday the additional expert evidence which he had expected to rebut the very damaging testimony of the Government experts.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The Times in an editorial article this morning says: "The people of England would view with serious apprehension any further interference in the internal affairs of Egypt."

The idea of a joint Anglo-French military intervention would excite the gravest misgivings and only would be entertained in any case with the utmost reluctance.

The premature landing of foreign troops would, in the present condition of Egypt, be the beginning of disturbance.

Mr. Cameron will not occupy the Governor's mansion for some time. It requires three months overhauling inside and out.

The Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings made an examination of it to-day and found that in all the rooms save those plastering upon the walls had become very dry and mouldy, and the rooms resembled more a dungeon than those of a dwelling house.

The Norfolk police bill, amending the charter of Norfolk so as to take away the appointment of the police from the police commissioners and to vest it in the Mayor, was passed to-day.

THE GUTTAU TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5.—Mr. Scoville and Col. Reed were in conference at an early hour this morning, and will be engaged all day upon the preparation of law points, which they will on Saturday present to the court for its rulings.

Neither of these gentlemen appear at all sanguine of obtaining a verdict favorable to their client, yet both of them seem to maintain, not only that Guttau was legally irresponsible for his act, but that he is at this moment an insane man, his own assertion to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. Scoville was greatly disappointed at his failure to get before the jury yesterday the additional expert evidence which he had expected to rebut the very damaging testimony of the Government experts.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

There is a terrible future for all physical ailments, and impending danger usually brings a person to his senses even though it may be too late.

DEATH OF A SCULPTOR.

PARIS, Jan. 5.—The death is announced of Francois Michel Pascal, the French sculptor, in his 83d year.

Two Men Drowned.

RED WING, Mich., Jan. 5.—Two young men, Andrew Gusterson and Fred Matter, were drowned while skating yesterday.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The Post's financial article says:

At the Stock Exchange U. S. bond are 4 higher for the 4s and otherwise unchanged.

A vigorous fight is to be made upon Mr. Nicol's bill to provide compensation to the owners of animals killed or injured on railroads.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE.

95 CAMPBELL STREET, NEW ORLEANS, La., March 16, 1881.

H. H. WARNER & Co. Sirs—I know from personal experience that your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is a good thing for chronic liver difficulty.

J. R. MCCONNELL

DIED.

In this city, on January 4th, 1882, GEORGE ANN VIOLETT, in the 42nd year of her age.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.

Resolved, That the galleries of the House of Delegates be closed until ordered to be opened by the Speaker of the House, unless sooner ordered by the House.

Mr. Graves explained that he understood the smallpox was prevailing all over the city, and he thought it might be spread over the miscellaneous crowd coming in the galleries.

Both galleries were filled by the colored population, but they did not leave until the Sergeant-at-Arm cleared them.